

Getting away from the hustle and bustle of city life and resting in a peaceful environment... If even reading is good for you, who knows what it would be like to experience this?

Where are Seferihisar and Sığacık?

Seferihisar is a district of Izmir. Sığacık is a small neighborhood of Seferihisar. Surrounded by Urla, Güzelbahçe and the Aegean Sea, this region is one of the cutest places in the Aegean.

We can say that it is a stop that you can consider when you want to have a weekend getaway during your trip to Seferihisar and Sığacık. You can easily enjoy the sea and the sun when you travel between June and October. Even if you do not want to coincide with busy periods, we recommend waiting for the schools to open. If you go in winter, you may find it windy.

Slow City Seferihisar: Places to Visit in Seferihisar and Sığacık

Seferihisar is Turkey's first region that received the title of "cittaslow" (slow city). Spending time here is perfect for getting away from the noise and stress of the city.

First Stop: Sığacık Castle

After arriving in Seferihisar, your first stop may be Sığacık Castle. This castle, built by Suleiman the Magnificent in the 16th century, is a great spot where you can enjoy history and sea views. The streets and shops inside the castle will take you on a journey in time. Parking a car here may be a little difficult, just so you know. The reason why we recommend that you start here first is because Sığacık is located within the walls of this castle. Yes, Sığacık is a small and fairytale-like region within the city walls.

Sığacık's Famous Market: Fresh and Natural Products

The famous market is held in Sığacık on Sundays. Here you can find organic vegetables and fruits and handmade products from local producers.

Teos Ancient City: Journey into History

You can visit the Ancient City of Teos in the afternoon. This ancient city is not only a perfect place to take a journey into the depths of history, but also a unique stop for those who love hiking. You can trace the past by exploring ruins such as the ancient theatre, agora and the Temple of Dionysus. If you are interested in history, this place will impress you greatly. You can visit the ancient city, which is open every day, between 08.30 and 19.00.
